Rt Hon Suella Braverman KC MP was Home Secretary until she resigned on October 19th 2023.

Suella was first elected in 2015 as MP for Fareham in Hampshire and re-elected in 2017 and 2019.

She served on the Education Select Committee for two years and was made Parliamentary Under Secretary of State at the Department for Exiting the European Union in 2018.

She was made Attorney General by Boris Johnson in February 2020 and served until Sept 2022, when she became Home Secretary.

Suella was born in Harrow, educated at Heathfield School in London and went on to study Law at Queens' College, Cambridge. She gained a Masters in Law from the University of Paris 1, Pantheon-Sorbonne and qualified as a New York Attorney. Called to the Bar in 2005, Suella specialised in public law and judicial review.

From 2010-2015 she was on the Attorney General's Panel of Treasury Counsel. She defended the Home Office, the Parole Board and the Ministry of Defence.

She is married with two children.
